CHARGES THAT SOUTHERN HAS BEEN IMPOSED UPON

Are Made Before Senate Sub-Committee by B. L. Dulaney, of Tennessee

INVESTIGATING MATTER

Branch Lines Dumped Onto System at Fabulous Prices

EQUAL TO NEW HAVEN

Discrimination Against Southern Ports is Charge

Shows Instances and Quotes Figures to Bear Out His Assertions That Short Lines Have Been Dumped on Southern.

Washington, July 22.—Charges that the Southern Railway has been imposed upon much as the New Haven is said to have been, through the unloading upon it of branch lines of little worth at fabulous prices, added an unexpected feature today to the investigation being made by a Senate sub-committee into alleged discriminations against Southern ports in coal rates.

B. L. Dulaney, of Bristol, Va.-Tenn., made the charges in connection with an explanation of why he believed the Morgan interests dominated the Southern Railway and directed the action of its officials. He finished his direct statement to the committee today. He will be cross-examined tomorrow by attorneys for the Southern Railway.

Mr. Dulaney said he once offered to sell the control of the Virginia & Southwestern Railway to the Southern for $500,000. A bond issue of $1,000,000 stood against the line. His offer was refused, he said, but later Henry K. McHarg sold the line to the Southern for about $6,300,000 with a profit estimated at $4,000,000.

Knoxville & Bristol.

The Knoxville & Bristol Railway, sold to the Southern for $500,000, Mr. Dulaney said, was offered to him for $40,000 and he did not buy because he did not think the line worth that amount.

Mr. Dulaney testified at length in support of his charge that coal is being diverted from Southern ports.

"Coal operators are robbed of their right to do a normal business," he said. "Unless some relief be granted it will be necessary for independent operators to give up their efforts. They cannot meet such unfavorable conditions."

He testified he sold the Black Mountain Railway, a short line tapping tht Black Mountain field, to the Virginia & Southwestern Railway, under a contract with the president of the latter line, H. K. McHarg, providing that the Louisville & Nashville Railway should have the use of the line. This was done, the witness said, to preserve two outlets to the South for his coal.

Mr. McHarg failed to advise the Louisville & Nashville of this agreement, he added, and was very angry when Mr. Dulaney gave the information. Rates have now been arranged, Mr. Dulaney declared, so the Louisville & Nashville cannot move coal from the Black Mountain field south or east from Middlesboro, a condition barring Black Mountain coal from the Southern field by way of the Louisville & Nashville.

A number of similar statements were introduced by Mr. Dulaney in support of his contention that interlocking directorates in New York arrange and dictate rates.

NEARLY 30,000 POUNDS SOLD AT TABOR YESTERDAY.

Opening Tobacco Sale a Big Success. First Warehouse.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Mt. Tabor, N. C., July 22.—The opening sale of the Carolina Warehouse at this place was a magnificent success from every standpoint. Nearly 30,000 pounds of the golden weed was sold at prices ranging from 4 to 14 cents. Only first croppings were offered at this sale, and the prices were considered good for these grades.

In opening a tobacco market at this place, the business men of the town have overcome many obstacles and their success in this direction is a splendid tribute to citizens of the town. With the best strawberry market in Eastern North Carolina, a cotton market second to none, and the final establishment of a tobacco market that will be made second to none, the town will live up to the reputation of the best town, situated in the best country and inhabited by as goog business men and farmers as you will find in the great State of North Carolina.

He cut his throat w ith a steel shank which he had removed from one of his shotes.

Robinson was accused of shooting Norton while resisting arrest on June 19. The officer was attempting to arrest him at the request of the Michigan authorities, Robinson being wanted in Grand Rapids for the alleged killing of three clerks in a jewelry store during a robbery.

ROOSEVELT WANTS TO GO BEFORE COMMITTEE

In Regard to The Pending Colombia Treaty

Senator Stone, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, However, Does Not Encourage the Colonel.

Washington, July 22.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt in a letter to Chairman Stone, of the Senate foreign relations committee, today asked for an opportunity to be heard in opposition to the pending treaty proposing to pay Colombia $25,000,000 for the partition of Panama. The committee adjourned without taking action on the request as Chairman Stone was unable to marshal a quorum.

In his letter to Senator Stone, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"If there is any intention of your committee to act favorably on the proposed treaty with Colombia, by which we are to pay Colombia $25,000,000 and to express regret for the action taken in the past, I respectfully request to be heard thereon. I was President throughout the time of the negotiations, first with Colombia and then with Panama, by which we acquired the right to build the Panama Canal.

"I had full knowledge of everything of any importance that was done in regard thereto by any agent of the government and I am solely responsible for what was done."

Senator Stone, commenting on the request, indicated that he was not enthusiastically in favor of hearings.

"The question to be considered," said Senator Stone, "is not so much what happened ten or eleven years ago. The question is how to adjust our relations. Mr. Roosevelt has said time and again what he has to say about Colombia. If he has anything further to say, let him write it out and send it to the committee. I am not much in favor of turning the foreign relations committee of the Senate into a town meeting.'

ROADS COULD NOT OWN OTHER STOCKS.

If Bill Presented Yesterday in Senate Became a Law.

Washington, July 22.—Ownership of stocks by Inter-State carriers in other corporations without sanction of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, would be made a criminal offense by a bi llintroduced today by Senator Norris, of Nebraska. Disclosures of the New Haven investigation and the New York Central Railroad's interest in coal companies prompted the measure.

Any official using a railroad's money for campaign contributions or for procuring franchise rights would be criminally liable.

WARREN CONFERS WITH SIMMONS AND OVERMAN

"Some Little Sentiment" for State-Wide Primary

State Chairman Says He Stands by Democratic Platform on Primary Question—Petition From Wilmington for Clark.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 22.—State Chairman Thomas D. Warren, of Newbern, held conferences with Senators Simmons and Overman today. Mr. Warren stated that his visit to Washington was of no importance to the public. He was merely here on a little pleasure trip, he said. Mr. Warren, in reply to a question, stated that there was "some little sentiment" in the State for a State-wide primary.

"Are you in favor of a State-wide primary?" Mr. Warren was asked.

"I stand by the Democratic platform," replied the chairman.

"Do I understand you to say that you stand by the action of the recent State convention?" was another question put to the State chairman.

"Yes. I stand by the platform recently adopted at Raleigh," was the reply.

Several petitions signed by lawyers, among them being one from Frank Herbst, of Wilmington, who managed Judge Clark's recent campaign, reached here today urging the President to appoint the Raleigh man to the Supreme court bench. These petitions will be taken to the White House tomorrow by Senators. Simmons and Overman. It is not understood, however, that either Senators Simmons or Overman will endorse Judge Clark. They will, it is said, merely present the petitions from the State's lawyers and withdraw. P. R. A.

PEACE IN MEXICO IS FAR FROM ASSURED

Villa May Make Trouble For General Carranza

EUROPE GETS ACTIVE

England, France and Spain Make Demands on Constitutionalist Chief. Carbajal Will Not Surrender Unconditionally.

ARMISTICE WAS SIGNED LATE LAST NIGHT.

Mexico City, [illegible], July 22. That an armistice between the government and the Constitutionalists was signed tonight and that hostilities will be suspended throughout the republic, was the statement given out tonight by Gen. Eduardo Iturbide, governor of the Federal district, in the name of President Carbajal.

Peace negotiations will be advanced upon a basis of giving full guarantees to everybody.

Washington, July 22—Peace in Mexico is far from assured and complications both internal and international are both rapidly entangling the situation, according to administration officials, diplomats and Mexicans of both factions here who are in touch with all phases of the problem.

The United States government is exerting every influence toward harmonizing discordant elements, but certain aspects are admittedly grave. Official reports reveal that the most threatening factor is the aloofness of Gen. Villa from the authority of Gen. Carranza. Another vexing point is that Gen. Carranza, according to his agents here, is disinclined to grant an amnesty to political offenders and will insist on an unconditional surrender by the Carbajal government. Unless Carranza is willing to give proper assurances Provisional President Carbajal will rally all the military elements at his disposal and resist, to the end, the Constitutionalist advance.

The representatives of Brazil, Chile and Argentina, who mediated in the international dispute between Mexico and the United States, have indicated through Secretary Bryan their belief that a peaceful transfer of authority could be easily achieved if an amnesty were granted and proper guarantees given.

Foreign Complications.

Foreign complications are looming up as between Mexico and England, France and Spain and European creditors generally who had financial relations with the Huerta government. England is preparing to ask for satisfaction for the killing of Wm. S. Benton and France is making vigorous protest over the killing of two French citizens at Zacatecas. The Spanish government is anxious that the Spaniards driven from Mexico be reimbursed for their losses. The grievances of these countries are lodged against Gen. Villa particularly, and the estrangement of Gen. Carranza with Villa has made it difficult for the first chief to settle them satisfactorily.

No indications of Villa's attitude has come, but reliable advices to the Washington government are to the effect that Villa has been concentrating his troops preparatory to making vigorous demands upon Carranza.

The Washington administration will insist that an amnesty be granted. Recognition will be withheld until a peaceful transfer of authority at Mexico City is arranged.

Jose Castellot, personal representative of Provisional President Francisco Carbajal here, said he was confident that a satisfactory agreement would be reached. He is relying chiefly on the influence of the American government to prevent further fighting and bring about an amnesty. Both Castellot and Emilio Rabasa, head of the delegation which represented Huerta at the Niagara Falls mediation, declared today the Carbajal government wanted no political share in the new administration.

Mr. Rabasa had a long talk with the South American mediators and called on the Spanish ambassdor before leaving for New York late tonight.

The the mediators paid a formal call on President Wilson and together with Secretary Bryan discussed the success of the Niagara Falls mediation. The President thanked the diplomats for their efforts.

Prospect for Peace Bright.

Mexico City, July 22.—Prospects for peace grew brighter today with the announcement from Carranza sources in the capital that negotiations for the transfer of the government to the Constitutionalists were proceeding favorably.

Th same hopeful attitude was taken by Federal officials and it is understood Gen. Carranza agreed to a general amnesty, the chief point for which Provisional President Francisco Carbajal has been contending.

The 300 men in the advance guard of Gen. Alvaro Obregon's 8,000 Constitutionalists are at Tula, an hour's ride from the capital, and the remainder of his army is near Queretaro, 120 miles to the north, where it is assembling for a peaceful advance on Mexico City.

Gen. Obregon probably will be the first Constitutionalist commander to arrive here. His force is believed to be sufficient to insure the capital against internal disorder or attacks by bandits now active in the south.

The impression prevails here that the Huerta Congress will not meet again and that the next session of the

RESUME WORK ON TRUST MEASURES

Senate Considers Inter-State Trade Commission Bill

AT INSTANCE OF BORAH

Revised Clayton Bill is Reported to Senate and Railroad Securities Bill is Near Completion—To See President.

Washington, July 22.—On instance of Senate Borah, Republican, the Senate today resumed consideration of the inter-State trade commission bill, first of the administration anti-trust measures.

The revised Clayton bill to supplement the Sherman act was reported from the judiciary committee today but the inter-State commerce committee was not quite ready with a perfected measure to regulate the issuance of securities by common carriers.

The securities bill practically was completed and a new print of the revised text was made public after the committee had yielded to Louis D. Brandeis, one of its advisers, and incorporated a section which would make it unlawful for a common carrier to acquire any new lines without authority from the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Mr. Brandeis and George Rublee, of New York, objected strenuously to the scope of supervisory authority given the Inter-State Commerce Commission in the Newlands bill and they plan to appeal to President Wilson tomorrow. The experts maintain the Newlands bill would amount to a Federal guarantee of railroad securities and abolish all authority of State railroad commissions over stock issues.

The Newlands Bill.

As agreed upon tentatively and to be reviewed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission tomorrow, the Newlands bill would give the Inter-State Commerce Commission authority to approve or disapprove the issuance of securities by carriers for "construction, extension, enlargement, betterment, maintenance or equipment of its railroad or facilities," etc., or for the "lawful acquisition of the property of or interest in another common carrier corporation, or' for the protection of or improvement of property heretofore acquired not connected with its business as a common carrier, if such last named expenditure will not injuriously affect the public interest nor impair the ability of the corporation to perform its public service as a common carrier." The commission would have the power either to fix a minimum price below which securities should not be sold, or to require the securities to be offered for sale by competitive bidding, and when issuance of securities are approved "the commission would issue to the carrier its certificate of authority."

Electric railroads are exempted from the bill except when they are parts of a railroad system.

HIBERNIANS TO RAISE MONEY FOR ULSTERITES

Delegates Rise En Masse to Greet President of Body When He Begins Annual Address at Norfolk Yesterday

Norfolk, Va., July 22.—The body of delegates rose en masse this afternoon when President James J. Regan of the Ancient Order of Hibernians began to deliver his annual address and cheered him to the echo.

President Regan, smiling his pleasure at the demonstration, commenced the address in which he recalled the hearty and loyal action of the Chicago convention when without a discordant note it reelected him president, not so much, he said, to show loyalty to him but to demonstrate its commonness of purpose in the work which it was called upon to perform. The president then reviewed general conditions of the order, assuming the audience that it was becoming more and more powerful as a preserving agent for the safety of the republic.

The speaker reviewed the situation in Ulster where, he said, "a few intolerant spirits have been waging a bitter campaign agaist home rule, arousing wherever possible racial prejudice and religious bigotry." The speaker also touched on the relations of the society to the church which he expressed in the sentence that "faith and the fatherland are synonymous with us."

President Regan also touched on the Ladies Auxiliary. He said that it would indeed be a tame organization which tried to exist without the women to inspire its's effort and to set the pace for the slower-footed men to follow.

Mr. Regan's address was the feature of the second days session of the biennial convention of the Ancient Oredr of Hibernians.

Memorial mass at St. Paul's church Portsmouth, opened today's session.

JOSEPH CAILLAUX SPENDS ENTIRE DAY ON THE STAND

Documents Which Caused Trouble When Former Premier of France Was on the Stand the First Day Are Declared Not to Exist by the Government—Presiding Judge Has Trouble in Quieting Demonstrations of Crowded Court Room

Paris, July 22.—Joseph Caillaux, former premier, was again today a central figure in the trial of his wife, Mme. Henriette Caillaux, charged with killing Gaston Calmette, editor of The Figaro. The court room was crowded to its utmost capacity in the expectation of sensational revelations arising from M. Labori's closing ultimatum of last night when he declared he would refuse to plead unless a full statement was made by the government regarding documents which, it was alleged, were important enough to crush Caillaux.

On the opening of court, the procurator-general said he was authorized by the government to declare that the document referred to in yesterday's testimony did not exist. Instead, therefore of utterly discrediting the ex-premier, the incident ended in his triumph.

The radical leader followed the case with the closest attention. Occasionally he would look tenderly in the direction of his wife with an encouraging smile or gesture.

Exciting Scenes.

Twice during the session today there were exciting scenes. Once when M. Chenu declared it did not become M. Caillaux to endeavor to soil the grave which his wife has made, the ex-premier sprang forward and exclaimed:

"Since I must take notice of what this lawyer has said, I will ask him if he will take personal responsibility for his words."

When the uproar occasioned by the inquiry had ceased, M. Chenu added that he would personally assume all responsibility.

As M. Caillaux left the court at the close of the hearing many hands were outstretched to him. He seemed to be deeply touched by the manifestations of sympathy and exclaimed in a voice shaken with real emotion:

"I see I still have some friends left."

A small crowd assembled outside the main gates of the palace of justice to see M. Caillaux depart. They gave him a rousing cheer mingled with a few hisses.

M. Caillaux, accompanied by Deputy Pascal Ceccaldi, went to the Conciergerie and spent an hour with his wife. Meanwhile, on the opposite side of the palace, close to the statue of Henry IV, on the Pont-Neuf, a small crowd, waiting in vain to see the ex-premier, began to discuss the case and soon came to blows. It required police interference to disperse the rioters.

Corroborate Evidence.

Pierre Mortier, editor of Gilbias, corroborated previous evidence as to the overwrought nerves of Mme. Caillaux and to her knowledge that the Figaro was about to publish sensational revelations. He was followed by three other journalists, M. Du Barry, editor of Journee Republicane; Albert Livet, manager of the Radical, and Robert Lecourt, editor of the Courier du Parlement, who declared that they had been informed that the Figaro intended to publish other letters after the "Thy Joe" letters.

They refused to tell the names of their informants.

Witnesses followed each other in rapid succession. The distinguished scientist, Paul Fainleve, declared he had been told by the banker, Gaston Dreyfus, that the Figaro was going to publish a number of private letters.

Leon Bilby, editor of Intrasigeant, related how M. Calmette had read the Fabrere report on the Rochette affair at a dinner of a few friends, saying as he replaced it in his pocketbook: "I always keep it on me; one never knows what may happen."

One of the last witnesses was Adel Bonnard, of the staff of the Figaro, who produced a letter in which M. Calmette asked him to express deep regret to Mme. Gueydan (M. Caillaux's first wife) that they had been forced to use her letter.

An exciting scene was created during today's session of the trial when, following the testimony of George Prestat, brother-in-law of the slain editor and chairman of The Figaro Company, M. Caillaux demanded of Maitre Chenu, counsel for the Calmette heirs, if he took full responsibility for a statement he made concerning the testimony yesterday of M. Caillaux. The statement of M. Chenu and M. Caillaux's question caused scenes of intense excitement during which Judge Louis Anbel severely reprimanded the spectators.

The incident was preceded by a statement on the witness stand by M. Prestat to the effect that The Figaro had never been in the pay of foreign banks. He denied that Germans ever had held a majority of the shares as had been alleged.

Serious Trouble Averted.

M. Caillaux had drawn close to the bar in order to hear the testimony of M. Prestat. Maitre Chenu, commenting on the testimony of M. Prestat, said:

"I will add that it does not become M. Caillaux to come here and endeavor to soil the grave his wife made."

M. Caillaux in a state of excitement exclaimed:

"Since I must take notice of what this lawyer has said, I will ask him if he will take personal responsibility for his words."

When the ensuing excitement had died down, M. Chenu replied:

"I take the entire responsibility. You cannot menace me here. You doubtless do not know the temper of the man whom you address."

Mme. Caillaux before today's session had a long conference with Bienvue Martin, the French minister of justice, Fernand La Bori, her counsel, and Jules Kerbaux, the procurator-general, in charge of the prosecution.

Senator Martin, who is acting minister of foreign affairs, was up most of the night, and an active interchange of telegrams took place between him and Premier Rene Viviani, now in Russia with the President. M. Caillaux and M. Labori made a vehement demand that public documents mentioned yesterday as having been in the hands of Calmette be produced in court. It was said yesterday that the document had been handed to President Poincare who passed them to the foreign office.

Documents Do Not Exist.

When the court came to order today, however, the procurator-general rose and said:

"I am authorized by the government to declare that the documents referred to in yesterday's testimony are only pretended copies of documents which do not exist."

"We consider the incident closed," Labori then said.

Charles Chenu, the lawyer representing The Figaro and Calmette's heirs, remarked sarcastically:

"I regard the incident as only an enjoyable diversion. It has pleased M. Caillaux to transform a criminal trial into a political one. He intends to go from here with a certificate of loyalty to France. Much good it will do him."

Yves Delbos, editor-in-chief of Le Radical, related that he had met Mme. Caillaux on the day of the shooting. He said "she seemed depressed and aged and was like a beaten, hunted thing."

Mme. Louise Mesagne Estradere, family society editor of The Figaro, testified she had dined in company with Mme. Caillaux about two months before the shooting.

She said Mme. Caillauv told her Mme. Gueyden, the former wife of M. Caillaux, was trying to sell letters against her. Mme. Mesagne Estradere said she told Mme. Caillaux she understood Mme. Gueydan had refused to sell the letters to Calmette for $6,000.

Mme. Sylvia Chartran, the wife of an artist, said Mme. Caillaux had confided her apprehensions to her two days before she killed Calmette.

Isidore De Lara, a musical composer, testified to lunching with the Princess of Monaco, Mme. Caillaux and Mme. De Mesagne Estradere on the day the "Thy Joe" letter was published. Mme. Caillaux while talking with him about The Figaro, said:

"They will end in killing my husband."

Eugene Morand, a writer, who was also at the luncheon, swore that Mme. Mesagne Estradere had spoken a great deal at the table about the "Thy Joe" letter. He continued:

"I thought she talked too much. Mme. Caillaux seemed greatly distressed."

HOME RULE CONFERENCE FOR FROM AN AGREEMENT

Smallest Prospect for Termination of Matter

All Kinds of Rumors Afloat in London —Ulster Nationalists Adopt Resolutions Endorsing Hon. John Redmond.

London, July 22.—At the close of a cabinet council late tonight it became known that there is only the smallest prospect of the Home Rule conference arriving at an agreement and its termination after it re-assembles tomorrow is regarded as certain.

Sir Edward Carson, it is understood, stands for the complete exclusion of six counties in Ulster from the operation of the Home Rule bill, including Fermanagh and Tyrone, while John Redmon declines as firmly to go beyond the concessions Premier Asquith has already made in permitting county referendum and until some way out of the difficulty is discovered at the eleventh hour it is believed Premier Asquith tomorrow will be obliged to announce the failure of the conference.

Premier Asquith today assured Parliament that he assumed full responsibility for the King's speech, thus allaying much of the angry feeling among the Liberals, or at least transferred it from the King to the Premier. Premier Asquith conferred tonight with Lord Landsdown and Andrew Bonar Law, opposition leaders.

All kinds of rumors are current, one that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admirality representing the minority in the cabinet, favoring the exclusion of Ulster, had threatened to resign; another that the King will make another move and that a speedy election has become inevitable.

John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, received tonight resolutions adopted at a conference at Omags, of Nationalist delegates from the counties of Derry, Tyrone and Fermanagh affirming unabated confidence in the Irish leader and declaring that at the risk of their lives Ulster Nationalists would never consent to be separated from the Irish nation.

CAPTURED REBELS ARE PUT TO DEATH

Haitien Government Force Win Big Victory

REPORT TO WASHINGTON

Large Force of Revolutionists Entered Cape Haiten Before Garrison Was Awake and Two-hour Battle Followed.

Washington, July 22.—Many Haitien rebels were executed at Cape Haitien today after government forces had defeated 500 revolutionists in a two-hour street battle. The rebels entered the town early today before the garrison was awake.

Captain Russell, of the battleship South Carolina, reported the affair by wireless to the Navy Department. His dispatch said the government troopers, numbering 400, repulsed the attack with a loss of eight men killed. The rebels, after having 31 killed, fled in disorder. Many sought refuge in houses, from which they were dragged and executed.

Captain Russell's report follows:

"At 3 o'clock this morning the rebel forces about 500 strong, under the leadership of Charles Salnavo, by a still march, gained an entrance into Cape Haitien before they were discovered. The government troops, consisting of about 400 men, were quartered near the point of entry and successfully stopped the advance. Each faction stood its ground and a rapid and continuous rifle fire was kept up for about one hour, when the forts, St. Michael and Bellaire, opened up with artillery. This had a demoralizing effect on the rebels and a disorderly retreat was begun. The rebels left their dead and wounded on the field and many threw away their arms. The fighting lasted about two hours. The latest information gives the killed as 31 on the revolutionists' side and eight on the side of the government. I am unable to ascertain the number of wounded.

"Between 200 and 300 government troops arrived today under the leadership of Codio, all of whom were mounted. It is impossible to make an estimate of the revolutionists outside as they are scattered over such a large area.

"Cape Haitien is quiet tonight. After the fighting this morning, a proclamation was issued by the government stating that a number of the rebels were known to be hidden in buildings inside the town and that whosoever should harbor or fail to deliver over such persons should, upon discovery, suffer death. The houses of the town were searched and a number of concealed rebels were discovered and shot. Some estimate the number shot as high as fifty, but that number is not considered reasonable."

Pressed by European powers, the United States government has about lost patience with the various elements in the Republics of Haiti and San Domingo and will demand a restoration of peace or threaten armed intervention.

Secretary Bryan will confer tomorrow with Secretary Daniels about a possible movement of marines into Haiti. Already discretionary orders have been given Captain Russell, of the battleship South Carolina, now at Cape Haitien, but final decision as to whether force is to be used by the American government has been deferred. Reports from Cape Haitien of further fighting with added danger to foreigners were regarded tonight as forecasting prompt action by the marines now being concentrated at Guantanamo.

Not only have military forces in Haiti refused to heed warnings of the American government that fighting cease, but dispatches tonight from Captain Eberle, of the cruiser Washington at Puerto Plata, San Domingo, reported the failure of attempts to settle the Dominican revolution by diplomacy.

The superior junta of the Legalista party has refused to enter into negotiations with the Dominican government.

Secretary Daniels decided today that the additional 400 marines to be sent to Guantanamo, for service in Haiti would be embarked from Norfolk, Va., Saturday on the transport Hancock now en route to Hampton Roads from Guantanamo. There are now more than 500 marines at Guantanamo or on American warships in Haitien and Dominican waters.

Reinforcements could be drawn from Vera Cruz and Mexican gulf waters. There are now some three thousand marines under General Funston's command and nearly another thousand could be gathered from the warships.

WILSON CITY FATHERS ENDORSE CHIEF WIGGS.

Back Up His Action in Closing Pool Room.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., July 22.—In special session called by Chief of Police Wiggs, the board of town commissioners adopted a resolution, after thorough investigation, which endorses the action of Chief Wiggs in closing a negro pool room. The board also revoked the license. The keeper of the place opened after being closed by the police and states that he acted on advice of his attorney, Mr. W. A. Lucas. Following the action of the town board, Mr. Lucas announces that he will ascertain if the town commissioners have a legal right to close pool rooms. In the meantime Mayor Dickinson and the board are standing behind the police in the effort to abate nuisances of this description.

WALLIE SCHANG

Red McGhee says:

World series star his first year out! Say, that's some rep to brag about for this kid, Wallie Schang. In 1912 in Buffalo he got his first real chance to show an' came through with a bang. Jus' thirteen teams put in a draft to lift him. It was Mack that laughed an' made the lucky pick. The minute that he joined Mack's crew the whole Athletic layout knew that he was gonna stick.

The vets an' kids alike he caught an' Mack soon wished he coulda bought a dozen more like Wall. He backstops like a seasoned hand an' throw—he pegs to beat the band. Gad, how he shoots that ball! At bat he's dangerous as sin an' like to drive a runner in when one run's what they need. Most catchers look like dubs or shines at runnin', but the ol' baselines burn up with Wallie's speed.

Four big world champ games Wallie played. The dopesters thought he'd get afraid an' break before that crowd. Not Wallie! Arm, eye, leg an' brain, all worked as Wallie pulled the rein. He did himself right proud. An' this year just to show the folk he wasn't any one-year joke he starts in to repeat. For years he may keep goin' grand but that first year mark's gonna stand. It's one darn hard to beat.

THEATRICAL

Today is another one of those notable, charming and keenly anticipated "Extraordinary Feature Days" at the popular Grand Theatre. At this handsome, cool as a cucumber amusement spot, with its solid comfort, will be offered an immense show today; tremendous in size and artistic worth.

Today, beginning sharply at 11 o'clock, this morning, and continuing until 11 o'clock tonight, Mr. Daniel Frohman will offer at the Grand the noted photoplay star, Carlyle Blackwell, and the famous Players Film Company, in the melodramatic nautical play, "The Spitfire", in four reels.

Edison's latest, "With His Hands," being the fifth and most thrilling story of "The Man Who Disappeared," series, with Marc MacDermott and Marjorie Ellison, will be presented. There will also be special music. The prices for today will be 10 cents for adults, but the price to children will remain at 5 cents, afternoon and night.

Yes, every Wilmington theatre-goer should be certain to see "The Spitfire", which is a four-reel version of Edward People's celebrated comedy drama. This is the play that entertained thousands for years, and it is the greatest thing ever flashed on a moving picture screen. The Grand has made special arrangements for a perfect presentation.

"Perils of Pauline"—Bijou.

Today the popular photoplay house presents its real bargain day of the week, offering the movie loving public a total of six reels of the very highest class motion pictures, and all for five cents, the regular admission charge.

The bill today is headed by no less a notable offering than "The Perils of Pauline," this being the eighth episode of this great $25,000 Electic photoplay by the Pathe Players. In the last installment of this serial two weeks ago, Pauline was left in a cave to starve to death. But she is being searched for, and doubtless will be found in this installment. Enough to say that the thrilling action that has characterized former ones goes right on in this one.

A single reel Nestor drama "A Ranch Romance," comes next, and features that celebrated emotional actor, Murdock MacQuarrie, supported by such stars as Agnes Vernon and Lon Chaney.

Then comes the comedy side, with a rousing joker number, "Bess, the Detectress, or the Dog Watch," this being the second one of these big comedy numbers for the week.

Three trunks containing articles of every description valued at approximately $5,000, were found at dawn in the chicken coops of two of the prisoners. The village trustees are trying to induce the policemen to explain how the trunks happened to be there.

Many unsolved robberies have been reported in the village recently.

HOOD IS DECLARED NOMINEE IN THIRD

By Congressional Executive Committee Yesterday

MEETING IN GOLDSBORO

Committee Says No Nomination Was Made in Preferential Primary, But That Hood Was Nominated in Convention.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., July 22.—The struggle for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Third district was ended today when the Democratic executive committee of the district met here and declared Hon. George E. Hood, of Wayne county, the regular nominee of the party for keeps. The committee unanimously passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, The Democratic executive committee of this, the Third, congressional district of North Carolina did on the 10th day of April, 1914, order a preferential primary for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, and,

"Whereas, Thereafter said primary was duly held and the said committee met in the city of Goldsboro, on the 27th day of May, 1914, to count said ballots and declare the result, and,

"Whereas, At such meeting said ballots were counted and it appeared upon such count that the Hon. George E. Hood received more votes than any other candidate, but the said committee was of the opinion that no nomination had been made because of the fact that no candidate had received a majority of all the votes cast, and,

"Whereas, The said committee then declared that no nomination had been made in the primary and that the nomination of a candidate should be referred to the congressional convention, and,

"Whereas, Thereafter the congressional convention of the district was held in the city of Goldsboro on the 3rd day of June, 1914, when and where the Hon. George E. Hood was duly nominated as the candidate for the Democratic party for Congress, the having received upon the first ballot 203.34 votes and there being only 31.10 votes cast against him, and,

"Whereas, The Hon. Charles R. Thomas then appealed from the action of the executive committee of the district and from the action of the convention to the State Democratic executive committee, and,

"Whereas, Said State executive committee, upon hearing of said appeal, requested that a primary be held in the district to determine whether the said George E. Hood or the said Chas. R. Thomas was the choice of the people as a candidate, and,

"Whereas, Thereafter the executive committee of this district, in accordance with the rules prescribed by the State executive committee, ordered such primary to be held and prescribed the rules and regulations for holding the same, which in the opinion of the committee were fair and just to both of said candidates, and,

"Whereas, The Hon. Chas. R. Thomas has declined to conform to said rules and regulations and has announced that he will not be a candidate in said primary, thereby leaving the said George E. Hood as the sole person to be voted for, and,

"Whereas, In the opinion of this committee, the said George E. Hood has been regularly nominated as a candidate for the Democratic party in this district and is the nominee of the party, therefore, resolved:

Primary Called Off.

"First, That the action of the Hon. Chas. R. Thomas, in declining to enter said primary, renders the holding of the same unnecessary and the call for said primary is revoked.

"Second, That the Hon. George E. Hood is declared to be and is the regular nominee of the Democratic party of the Third Congressional district for Congress.

(Signed "W. L. HILL, Chairman, "Duplin County. "J. L. BARHAM, Secretary." "Wayne County."

Chairman W. L. Hill, of Warsaw, appointed Messrs. W. M. Webb, of Carteret, and Geo. B. Waters, of Craven, to notify Mr. Hood of his nomination.

Mr. Hood appeared before the committee and spoke briefly, saying:

Mr. Hood Speaks.

"I feel deeply grateful for the great honor that you as representatives of the people of this district confer upon me in nominating me as the Democratic candidate for Congress.

"Since the new primary was requested by the State Democratic executive committee, the evidence of good will and support manifested by thousands of friends all over the district has overwhelmed me with gratitude. I desire upon this occasion to assure each and every one that words are inadequate to convey to them my feelings of appreciation and thankfulness. I earnestly invoke the aid and co-operation of every Democrat in the district in suppressing any friction that may have been created on account of this contest.

"The success of the immortal principles of Democracy in Nation and State should be nearer and dearer to our hearts than the success of any individual. I, therefore, implore that our differences be forgotten and that any discord that may have been engendered be buried so that we may march together in one solid phalanx to a great victory in November."

Secretary J. L. Barham was requested to transmit a copy of the resolution to Hon. Thos. D. Warren, chairman of the State executive committee, for ratification.

May Reply to Thomas.

The members of the committee felt that Mr. Thomas had done them a great injustice on account of the statements made in his letter of withdrawal from the contest. Messrs. Barham, Webb and Waters were appointed as a committee to make any reply to the charges made by Mr. Thomas that was considered necessary.

STEVENSON GETS 30 YEARS

Charlotte Negro Who Shot His Wife Five Times and Chopped Body to Pieces.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Charlotte, N. C., July 22.—Will Stevenson, who shot his wife, Sarah Stevenson, five times with a pistol and then hacked her body to pieces with an axe several weeks ago here, was given the maximum sentence for second degree murder—30 years in the penitentiary—by Judge T. J. Shaw after a jury had had his case 24 hours and announced they could not reach a verdict, 10 of them insisting on first degree and two on a second degree verdict.

Solicitor G. W. Wilson, rather than put the county to the expense of another trial, agreed to accept a submittal for second degree murder, provided the maximum penalty were inflicted, which the court agreed to.

Stevenson was examined by several physicians as to his mental condition, his plea of defense being insanity. All of them agreed that while he was of very low mentality, he was capable of discerning right from wrong and realizing the nature of the deed he had committed.

WHEREABOUTS OF KNOTTS AND SAMEY NOT KNOWN.

In Jail But Charlotte Doesn't Know Where—Victims Recovering.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charlotte, N. C., July 22.—Assistant Chief of Police Elliotte and Patrol Driver A. B. Moore, of the Charlotte police force, who were fired upon from ambush Saturday morning when they went into a mill settlement to investigate a reported holdup by two negroes and were desperately wounded, are making rapid progress toward recovery at the Presbyterian Hospital. The iron constitution of the two men is standing them in good stead and although each of them received a shot through the lungs, it is expected they will be out of the hospital by the middle of next week.

The members of the police department and the families of the wounded officers have retained F. M. Redd, Cameron Morrison and Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick of the local bar, to assist the State in prosecuting the gunmen, who are expected to be put on trial at the next term of Mecklenburg Superior court, which will be in session during the last week of August.

Hiram Sykes and Jesse Helms, alias Jesse Hartis, two of the gunmen, are in the Guilford county jail, where they were transported Saturday night on the advice of Presiding Judge T. J. Shaw, who is holding Superior court here, it being feared that the very pronounced feeling against the men here might lead to trouble.

Jim Knotts and Will Stamey, the other two members of the gang who did the shooting are in jail elsewhere, but Charlotte people do not know where they are. Judge Shaw, Sheriff Wallace and Chief of Police Moore having refused to make it known to what jails they were committed.

Before Chief of Police Moore left the gunmen in their respective jails Saturday night they had all confessed their part of the shooting. They made confessions individually and the tales of all of them tallied. Stamey did not have a pistol, they said, and therefore did not shoot.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 22.—Editor Fred R. Mintz, publisher of The Tribune, has just replaced his Campbell press with a Babcock regular, at a cost of about $1,800. The old press printed about 950 copies per hour, while his new press prints about 3,000 copies per hour. Fred Santford, of Geneva, N. Y., installed this press for Editor Mintz.

Quite a number of farmers in this section are curing their first tobacco this week. The curing of tobacco is beginning a good deal earlier this year than it was at first thought it would, due to the fact that the crop was set so late; but it is said that the weed has shown wonderful improvement in the past two or three weeks.

MONTREAT NEWS

By Rev. E. L. Siler.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Montreat, N. C., July 22.—The large auditorium, which seats 1,200 was packed to its utmost capacity Sunday morning to hear Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, whose sermons have made a deep impression on those who have heard them during the past week. He took his text from Waymoth's translation of the Bible, Phil. 2:9—"The Name Supreme." His subject was the "Ineffible Name." He said:

"The name supreme means more than friendship, or comfort or even Savior. His name here on earth is an inspiration to holy living. It was a great day when He left heaven—every event of His life was great, but He will be greater when He gets His real name—There He will be our judge. I yearn for you who do not know Him, and say to you: Accept Him, have Him for your friend, serve Him here, and bow with loved ones over there to speak His name supreme."

Sunday night Dr. Chapman gave his closing message in what he called "Home Night," having previously asked parents to bring all their children who were over twelve years of age and the younger ones, too, if they wished. His text was: "How shall I go up to my Father, and the lad be not with me?" And the subject was parental responsibility. Many have said that it was the strongest appeal to parents they had ever heard.

Monday was observed as a holiday and many went mountain climbing or sought rest in other kinds of recreation.

The Woman's School of Missions is in session this week, and each evening there will be addresses in the auditorium to which all will be invited. Tuesday evening Rev. Egbert W. Smith, D. D., of Nashville, spoke on "Our Sins Finding Us Out." Wednesday evening there will be an address on Christian Education, by a speaker yet to be announced. Thursday evening Rev. A. A. McGeachy, D. D., of Charlotte, will speak on "The Need of Home Mission Work for the Women of the Indians, Immigrants and Negroes." Friday evening Rev. J. M. Vander Meulen, D. D., of Louisville, will speak on "The Call of the Young." Saturday evening there will be an entertainment under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Adams, of Chicago and Montreat, for the benefit of the Montreat Library. Next Sunday morning and evening there will be sermons by Rev. R. O. Flinn, D. D., of Atlanta, and Rev. J. M. Vander Meulen, D. D.

One of the great features of the conference this year is the model Sunday school that is being conducted each Sabbath under the direction of the programme committee. Last Sabbath there was an attendance of 514, 279 of these being in the adult department. The best skilled teachers on the grounds are being used in teahing the various classes, and Sunday there were 40 teachers and officers in charge of this large school. All under twelve meet at the church, and all over twelve meet at the auditorium.

One of the most attractive features of the conference, early in August, will be an address by Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan. He will doubtless draw a large crowd to Montreat.

Kinston, N. C., July 22.—A dramatic scene was enacted on Queen street last evening just before sundown, when Joe Smith, a negro sawmill laborer, ran across the street, staggered, kneeled as if in prayer for a minute, and then toppled over. People picked Smith up from a pool of blood, while the police dragged Annie McGee, an undersized negress, from an alley half a block away. Annie was armed with a revolver. She is being held in the county jail without bail to await developments in Smith's condition, which is not good. She claims self-defense, and that she shot the man in the right side while he was trying to get the weapon with which to shoot her.

Many a man makes a running account but never puts enough gait in it to enable it to run him down when the time comes.

It is said by his friends that Huerta has two sides to him. Even so, he has managed from the very start to turn the wrong side to destiny.

Kipling, the poet, proposes to enter politics. Sooner or later he will write poetry telling how politics entered him and got what was coming to it.

Why should legislatures be blamed? They don't elect themselves, and can't expect to do any better on account of those whom the people elect.

Even if a man may be the tallest individual in his community he may not be able to reach a conclusion. His little sawed-off neighbor is liable to see it first.

A few Democrats are fighting President Wilson, but it is safe to say that when the diamond belt is handed to the winner it will have "WW" embossed on the buckle.

It's getting to be so now that when a man announces that he is going to run for an office, it means that he is going to make a running fight in order to keep the other fellow from getting it.

The trial of Mme. Caillaux now going on in France is one that brings all the political parties of that republic into action. The nation will be fortunate if the trial is completed without more trouble.

Deep water sandwitched between two railroads is the future outlook for the Cape Fear river. Let us predict that both sides of the river, from Navassa to Southport, will be lined with manufacturing plants.

If the New Haven road could talk it should be given a chance to testify to the fact that it never held up a single one of the high financiers who got in touch with it and kept "touching" it for all that it was worth.

Peace in Mexico depends on whether the Mexicans are capable of self-government or not. It may be a long time before we can expect too much of Mexico. In the meantime, Americans have a reason for suspecting themselves.

The present and former directors of the New Haven Railroad are to learn what it is to come in contact with the wrath of Woodrow Wilson, otherwise than through hearsay evidence, judging from the letter the chief executive wrote Attorney General McReynolds Tuesday.

Ex-Governor Sulzer who is liable to be picked out by the New York Bull Moosers as their candidate for governor, says "Colonel Roosevelt shows that he is playing into Charles F. Murphy's hands." Surely Murphy will have his hands full, but it will be sure to turn out that he will have the hand that will rake in the pot.

The seismograph at Georgetown University on Tuesday recorded heavy earth shocks somewhere within a radius of 1,800 miles of Washington, but the exact location of the quake has not been learned. We have a sneaking idea that it was over about Oyster Bay on account of the efforts of the colonel to shake Sulzer.

The controversy as to who discovered the North Pole, Peary or Cook, has been revived, and some congressional bonehead has put the decision up to Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels. Of course, the distinguished North Carolinian knows for sure who "sits at the head of the table," because he has never been two feet away from it, but it's one on him to expect him to decide whether Peary or Cook discovered it or just thought they did. Nevertheless, it is well known who ruined all his chances for being believed because of the fact that he got caught spinning a yarn that would make an amateur fisherman ashamed of his incredibility.

THE COWARD AND HIS GUN.

In the course of his speech at Greenville a few days ago, Governor Blease called Mr. J. W. Norwood, the banker, a coward. In about the time it takes an electric spark to uncoil itself, Mr. Norwood was reaching out with both hands for the Governor's collar. The coat-tail swingers had to get busy with the coat-tails of Mr. Norwood so they could restrain him from grabbing Blease around the seat of his larynx. Mr. Norwood, who is a former Wilmingtonian, is a small man, but the newspaper accounts tell us that excitement ran high and that a lot of duffers immediately if not sooner dived into their pockets for their guns.

The incident proves that Mr. Norwood was no coward, but that there were several different kinds of cowards hanging around loose in the crowd. Carrying guns and drawing them on such slight provocation was proof of it. In the first place, we would not take Blease for any lion in view of the fact that he took advantage of the occasion to vent his spleen on a man so mild mannered and diminutive as Mr. Norwood. If Blease really is brave he surely owes an apology to Mr. Norwood for the Governor's being mistaken about the banker's not being game.

It makes little difference what the row was about, there was nothing in it to call for gun play. There was no ground for spilling gore. There was no necessity for men in a civilized country to go to such a meeting armed to kill and endanger the innocent bystanders. Indeed, everybody knows that there is no great occasion calling for armed men at a political meeting anywhere in South Carolina. There is no crisis calling for the shedding of blood. Least of all, there is no justification for the volcanic sputtering and dynamic denunciation which seems to characterize discussions in South Carolina.

The people surely ought to be tired of the fiery oratorical output of a class of demagogues who seem to be holding sway these times. The hysterical, harassing harrangues which pass current for speeches have no place in a civic meeting where legitimate discussion would be enlightening.

South Carolina ought to cut it out, and it is hoped North Carolina will never cut in on the kind of campaigning that is about as absurd as a monkey insurrection on account of a short cocoanut crop.

GREAT UNKNOWN BARGAINS.

Wilmington's growth is indicated by the fact that people now and then learn with surprise, in an accidental way, that new business houses have opened up at various locations in the city. Newcomers are here all right, whether the people ever find it out or not. Of course, new mercantile establishments which advertise and open up with a great flourish of trumpets, catch customers from the word go, but those who do not advertise are discovered now and then by accident.

Many houses which do not advertise have just as "good goods" as anybody and sell at as low prices as other stores. They are conducted by clever men who have the right kind of goods, but their fault is that they leave it to all of us to find it out by accident. By George, we lost $3.00 last week because we were forced into the market and had to buy things without knowing that they were on sale in Wilmington at a lower price. We lost out by not being a mind reader and being able to see the bargains which some merchants know about themselves, while leaving us to either guess or just be lucky enough to stumble right up on a cinch.

It has only been a few days ago that we paid two prices for a Brunswick county watermelon because we failed to come face to face with a box cover containing a marking pot proclamation to the effect that juicy Brunswick melons were being sold at prices based on the Underwood-Simmons tariff. The worst part of it is that we are only one of the thousands of readers of The Star who get left because they look in vain for some real bargains which merchants do not advertise so they can be known in every household in a wide and constantly expanding community—simply enlarging into the wonderful Wilmington where the whole push from all over the country is bound to come in order to get in the swim.

It should be stated that a very large proportion of the worry and disappointment which we undergo is on account of getting left because some people never think of advertising so as to keep us from getting in a hole on bargains. We are more or less a consumer, just for the sake of staying in the ring with everybody's hat, and so it makes it a great deal tougher on us to squannder our wealth without knowing who can give us a run for our money without taking more than is coming to them. The whole thing can be blamed on merchants who do not advertise and wise us up on bargains in the great variety of substantial, delicious and modish things of life.

Thousands of people have contracted the habit of attending all bargain sales so they can look out for themselves. If it is an "Old hoss sale," they are right there, and the fact is, there are plenty of people who will go right out and buy a junk heap on short notice. People really have a right to know where they can pick up what they want. Our lady friends especially are always on the outlook for the main chance and they will leave breakfast on the table any morning to go out and get it and bring it home in spite of all kinds of athletic struggles to get it.

A live advertiser is a three cornered benefactor. He benefits himself by getting a corner on the trade, he benefits thousands of people by aiding them to corner bargains, and he benefits the whole community because he is sure to be one of the cornerstones of its commercial success. Nobody is prepared to dispute one iota, one scintilla, or one predication herein because of the undethronable fact that none of their prevarications can stand for a minute against the monumental truth, unveiled right under the eye of thousands of Star readers who read advertisements because it pays them to do it.

WHERE WEALTH GROWS.

Why talk about going anywhere to dig for gold when wealth grows on North Carolina land? Treasures in the bowels of the earth may be dug out, with immense capital invested in mining, but wealth can be produced with less capital by working on top of the soil most anywhere in North Carolina. Modern agricultural methods are proving that to be true. It is not a theory, but a proposition that has been demonstrated by those who have tried it.

In today's Star will be found a communication from a gentleman who has just seen a North Carolina field of tobacco which promises a yield valued at $60,000 to $100,000. The crop stands on 300 acres of land in the Nation's Garden Spot. It is on the Atlantic Coast Line between Fayetteville and Sanford, and Mr. J. A. Harps, formerly of Ohio, is the fortunate man who owns the plantation.

The Star's correspondent says Mr. Harps' net profit last year was $30,000 on 300 acres of land, or $100 profit per acre, but he estimates the present crop prospect at from $60,000 to $100,000. Suppose it is just half what is expected, and gracious knows that is a plenty, it would make farming in North Carolina a better and safer proposition than mining in Alaska.

However, read the communication from "One Who Saw It." to be found on this page of The Star.

LOOK WHO'S AGAINST US.

Senator Penrose is making a big fight to be returned to the United States Senate from Pennsylvania, and it is pretty safe to say that he will beat the Democratic and Bull Moose candidates. A united opposition might beat him but a three-cornered fight means the success of Penrose.

Roosevelt is fighting him but those who are for Penrose are the standpatters, the special interests, the tariff monopolists, the jingoists, "the gang," and money to burn. The crowd which is back of Penrose and which was back of Aldrich is the crowd which is fighting Woodrow Wilson.

It is for the people to side with their enemies or join in securing one more triumph over those who make assets of the masses.

It is said that "all men have their faults." At the same time that is no excuse for a man who indulges his faults so openly that if anybody gets caught he is the one. That's his own fault. The real slick man is the one who can hide his faults so they can't be found till about the time the hidden treasure of Captain Kidd is found on Money Island, opposite Southport.

The statement of Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham that the reports of the damage wrought by the recent hail storm in the counties of Gaston, Iredell and Lincoln have been greatly exaggerated is gratifying. It is to be hoped that the conditions in the South Carolina counties visited by the same hail storm are not so bad as have been reported.

A judge has held that one lick constitutes assault and that two licks constitute a fight. We know of a difficulty, however, in which two licks were struck, and yet it was not a fight nor did it bring on a fight. One man hit another and the one who was assaulted hit the grit. This shows how easy it is for some judges to get overruled.

A London dispatch says American women are all the rage in England. Same over here, with North Carolina in the lead.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The State Senate Committee on Constitutional Amendments at Atlanta, Ga., reported adversely on the measure giving women the right to vote in State and county elections. In practically all the Southern States any suffrage measure is certain to meet the same fate. Cannot the woman suffragists who persist in seeking to force Congress to act in the matter of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States realize that if they succeeded they would have all their eggs in one basket?—New York World.

Late news from Japan indicate the finding of flowing oil wells that give promise of steady production. Nothing could have happened more essential to the industrial prosperity of that country. They need the oil to feed the fires in their factories and cheapen the cost of transportation on their railways and rivers. It will also help to keep the imperial navy at less cost on a war footing. There is a ready home market for crude oil. Doubtless the development of oil territory will be energetically pushed as a consequence of the late discoveries.—Philadelphia Press.

In Salem, Mass., many years ago a few so-called witches were hanged and present day folks are fond of saying that belief in witchcraft no longer exists. But it does. In Carbon county, Pennsylvania, a woman who is engaged in the egg, butter, poultry and produce business has sued a neighbor for $10,000 because, as she alleges, she lost most of her trade and much of her reputation because the neighbor circulated the report that she was a witch. Evidently her customers believe in witchcraft. The age of common sense has not yet been ushered in for everybody in the United States, although President Wilson hit superstition a hard blow when he let it be known that 13 was his "lucky" number.—Savannah News.

Mr. Walser, of the Progressive committee, argues well against amalgamation with any other party, in his letter to the members of the Republican harmony committee. Devotion to the tenets of one's party faith is a fine thing. It is noble to eschew all suggestions of doing what may seem expedient. But, as a matter of fact, the Progressives of this State were not asked to do any of these things. The peace overtures had really come from the minority, as the situation is found in North Carolina. The Roosevelt people would have hazarded very little in going into a convention with the harmony-seeking Republicans. The majority could have made the platform say anything they wanted it to say, and the burden of a bolt would have been upon the minority, if they had not liked the proceedings. The Moose of this and of all other States may be sure that Mr. Roosevelt does not always overlook the utilitarian and the practical aspects of politics. While Mr. Walser and his committee were drawing their skirts about them, to avoid possible contamination with the wicked Republicans, Mr. Roosevelt was thinking very seriously, according to his own statement, of giving to Charles S. Whitman his support as candidate for Governor of New York, and he would have supported Mr. Whitman if the deal had been closed, as a Republican. All Mr. Roosevelt asked was that Mr. Whitman denounce, by name, Mr. Barnes, who had done unpleasant things to Mr. Roosevelt at Chicago. And then there is the physical as well as the political fact, that the Republicans and the Progressives are getting together, with or without the consent of their respective leaders. In some sections it would be hard now to unamalgamate the forces.—Greensboro News, (Ind.)

WHERE WEALTH GROWS.

A North Carolina Field of Tobacco Probably Worth $100,000.

To the Editor of The Star:

The old era of stagnation has passed and North Carolina is now rapidly forging to the front as a field for the home-seeker, investor and speculator. Streams of immigration are now silently flowing into the low-priced lands of this State, and laying the foundations of a great agricultural commonwealth.

As an example of the wonders that have been worked under our very eyes, the investment of Mr. J. A. Harps, a rich man from Ohio, is a good instance. Coming from the western prairies, where an acre of land costs from $100 to $200, he was astounded to find that good land in the Piedmont section of North Carolina could be secured at a price ranging from $4 to $7 per acre.

Taking advantage of this wonderful opportunity, Mr. Harps bought about 10,000 acres in what has hitherto been called the "sand belt" in Harnett county. He immediately set about to realize his prediction that this section of North Carolina was the finest agricultural country in the world, climate, soil and population being considered.

After advising with experts, it was finally determined that an experiment would first be tried with tobacco. Towards this end, the services of Mr. F. N. Trogdon, of Guilford county, one of the State's best tobacco men, was secured. Mr. Trogdon hired from 75 to 100 hands, and began to make things hum. Under his able management the result has been little short of miraculous. Last year the gross proceeds from the tobacco crop was $30,000, and this year, with 300 solid acres in tobacco, a minimum yield of $60,000 is predicted, with a reasonable expectation of getting $100,000 for the crop.

About three weeks ago the tobacco stalks on the Harps farm were about on the level with a man's shoulder, but, of course, it has been pruned down to about sixteen leaves on each stalk.

It is truly a wonderful sight to visit this plantation and see three hundred acres in magnificent tobacco, where a few short years ago the public thought nothing could be produced on these Carolina sand barrens.

If we did but advertise facts like this to the outside world, the stream of emigration now flowing to the West and to Canada would turn to this new land of promise. "The New South." Think of it, land that sold for from $4 to $7 an acre producing an annual crop worth a hundred thousand dollars on three hundred acres! Great credit is due Messrs. Harps and Trogdon for this concrete advertisement of the possibilities of the Old North State.

ONE WHO SAW IT.

ANOTHER GOOD WOMAN GONE TO HER REWARD—MOTHER TERESA.

Mother Teresa was the Mother Superior of Belmont College for young ladies. A more lovely woman never lived. She was not only a mother in name, she practiced a mother's part. She was a living angel and all will miss her. Her place will be hard to fill; her only aim in life was to live only for God and do good. Often has the writer seen her talking to the little orphans at Belmont only as a mother can talk. She was a living angel and how her crown glitters in heaven today! Our loss is her gain. How sad to think she will not mingle with us any longer. She was a hard worker in God's vineyard. God knew that she needed rest. He called her home so she could enjoy the blessing and wear the crown that He had promised her and for which she worked so hard. The writer has known her for years and will miss her dear face and her many kind words and good advice she was always willing to give. May her soul rest in peace and may the angels lead her into Paradise and enjoy all the blessings that she so richly deserves. Good-bye, dear Mother, and only hope that my life will end as yours and that some day I will see you again. One who knew her only to do good and help her little girls who were in her charge and many others. I will drop a tear on your grave and remember you and the holy life you have led daily, like a pure cala lily, pure and holy, but like the lily, has faded away, only to bloom out in your heavenly home for all eternity.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Miss BERTHA A. PELOQUIN, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

If you feel played out, go to any drug store and ask for a bottle of S. S. S. Here is a remedy that gets at work in a twinkling; it just naturally rushes right into your blood, scatters germs right and left, up and down and sideways.

You feel better at once, not from a stimulant, not from the action of drugs, but from the rational effect of a natural medicine.

The ingredients in S. S. S. serve the active purpose of so stimulating the cellular tissues of the body that they pick out from the blood their own essential nutriment and thus repair work begins at once. The relief is general all over the system.

THREE CORPORATIONS ASK COUNCIL FOR FRANCHISES

Applications Presented at Weekly Meeting Yesterday—Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, Wilmington & Fort Fisher Railway & Power Company and Tidewater all Represented—Action is Postponed

Applications for franchises to construct and operate electric trolley lines over a number of Wilmington's streets were filed with City Council at the regular weekly meeting yesterday morning by three different public service corporations.

Two of the applications were from new companies—the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company and the Wilmington & Fort Fisher Railway and Power Company, both of which have been organized recently for the primary purpose of constructing and operating interurban trolley lines between Wilmington and several seaside resort developments in the southern part of New Hanover county. The third is from the Tidewater Power Company and asks permission to make certain extensions in its city system, and also to be allowed to operate a line of electric busses over certain of the other city streets.

Holding that the franchise matters were too important to be passed upon hurriedly, City Council took no action on the applications yesterday. The applications were turned over to the city attorney to be gone over with regard to the legal points involved, and will be taken up at a later meeting.

Under the terms of the city charter, franchises to a new corporation, even if granted by Council, are not effective until passed upon by vote of the people. Therefore, the applications of the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, and the Fort Fisher Railway & Power Company, if granted by Council, will have to be submitted to the people at the polls for ratification.

However, under the charter, the Council may grant applications for franchises to make extensions to any system already in operation without ratification by the people, hence the Tidewater's request for the privilege of making its extension can be acted upon finally and officially by Council.

The application of the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company also asks for the privilege of operating a power plant and stringing poles and wires through the city, for the purpose of selling current for lighting, heating and other purposes, and also to be allowed to bring current into the city generated elsewhere.

Little other business was transacted by Council yesterday, the greater part of the session being taken up with discussion of the applications for franchises.

It is not unlikely that Council will determine in its opinion which of the two applications for the new companies is the best proposition from the city's standpoint, and then let the people pass upon the matter in an election. Councilman Loughlin was of the opinion yesterday that this would be the best way to handle the question. Both new companies have asked for franchises on Second street, to the union station.

The W. & C. B. R. Co., Application.

The application of the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, which has been organized to build and operate an electric car line between the city and Wilmington Beach and Carolina Beach, in the southern end of the county, as well as to operate cars over certain of the city's streets and to furnish electricity and power for lighting and other purposes, was presented to City Council by Herbert McClammy, Esq., general attorney for the corporation. Mr. McClammy in presenting the application, pointed out that the men behind the new company have been working hard on the proposition for the past 18 months, and that they are now in position to accomplish results as soon as the necessary franchises are granted. The following are the streets on which the right to construct and operate car lines are asked:

First—On Second street from a point near Campbell (A. C. L. tracks) south to Greenfield street, thence on Greenfield street to Front street and on Front street to southern city limits.

Second—On Nixon street from 10th street to Sixth; on Sixth street to Chesnut street; on Chesnut street to Second street and then on Market street from Second to the Cape Fear river.

Third—On Dock street from Second street to 15th street and then on 15th street north to Oakdale cemetery.

Fourth—On 13th street south from Dock street to the southern city limits.

Fifth—On Eighth street south from Dock to the southern city limits.

Sixth—On Surry street from the southern city limits to Water street; on Water to Grace, on Grace to Nutt, on Nutt to Brunswick.

Seventh—On Marsteller street from the eastern city limits to Surry street.

Eighth—With the right to connect tracks of this company when they may approach an intersecting street, also the right to connect with tracks of other companies when elimination of duplicate tracks can be brought about by agreement to better serve the general public.

The company also asks the right to construct, maintain and operate an electric power and lighting plant within the city of Wilmington, with the right to erect all necessary poles, wires, apparatus, etc., to distribute and sell electric current for power, light and heating purposes, the power either to be generated in the power house or brought into the city on the poles and wires of the company though generated outside of the city.

Accompanying the petition is the form of ordinance as is required to be appended to all applications for charters, in which the company agrees to give bond to indemnify the city against any damages that may result through negligence on the part of any of its employes, and also bond to replace and repair all streets over which the proposed lines will run.

The ordinance attached to the application, after outlining the streets as mentioned above, is as follows:

"The foregoing grant to the said company is made upon the express condition that the construction and maintenance of such tracks, poles, wires and other structures, and the operation of cars upon such tracks, shall be in conformity with the ordinances and regulations of the City of Wilmington, relating thereto, and upon the further condition that the cars operated upon such tracks shall be propelled by electricity or shall be self-propelled cars, operated by gasoline or similar motive power other than steam, in all cases except as follows:

"On Surry street, on Water street, on Grace street, on Nutt street, on Marstellar street, and on Second street from Marstellar street to the southern city limits.

"On all the streets above mentioned it shall be lawful for the company to transport freight in cars propelled by electricity or in self-propelled cars operated by motive power other than steam.

"At least three miles of single track shall be laid on or before August 1st, 1916, and at least one track shall be laid on the other streets over which franchises are hereby granted on or before August 1st, 1919. In case of the failure to lay tracks as above specified on any of the said streets within the time limited, then all the rights of the Wilmington-Carolina Beach Railway Company in the portions of the above described streets not so occupied shall thereupon cease and determine, and shall revert at once, without any action on its part, to the said City of Wilmington, but such reversion of said rights to portions of said streets then unoccupied by tracks shall in no way affect or defeat the rights of said company to the streets or portions of streets herein mentioned which are so occupied."

W. & F. F. R. & P. Company.

Brooke G. Empie, Esq., presented the petition of the Wilmington & Fort Fisher Railway & Power Company, of which Mr. Hans A. Kure is president and Mr. Lawrence C. Kure is secretary. The company asks for franchises over several of the city streets, including Second street, over which the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company is also seeking a franchise.

Mr. Kure made a statement to Council yesterday in which he said that his company was desirous of immediate action, in order that work may be begun upon the proposed line. His company held options for a right-of-way he said, and these options expire next January, therefore it was necessary that work be begun soon. It was planned, he said, to have the line completed and in operation by next season.

The petition, as filed with Council by Mr. Empie, is as follows:

"The Fort Fisher Railway & Power Company petitions the City Council for a franchise to enter the City of Wilmington at 13th and Greenfield streets, and to lay a track through 13th street to Meares street, through Meares street west to Seventh street and through Seventh street to connect with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and the Seaboard Air Line Railway near Ashe street, this line being primarily for freight and through passenger service, and also make application for the right to lay a track for a passenger railroad for Seventh street down Queen street to the intersection of Queen and Second streets, then up Second street to Red Cross, then west on Red Cross to Front, to connect with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad depot."

The concluding paragraphs of the petition ask that an election be called to ratify the granting of the franchise.

In his remarks to Council Mr. Empie said that there was not the slightest doubt about the road being built, that the company had ample capital to finance the undertaking, and that it was ready to begin work immediately. He urged favorable action on the petition.

The Tidewater's request for franchises for certain extensions was filed by Mr. A. B. Skelding, the general manager, and it asks for the right to make extensions to its present system over certain of the city's streets, and also to be allowed to operate a line of electric busses over other streets. This application can be acted upon finally by Council without the necessity of submitting it to the people.

The petition presented by Mr. Skelding was in the following form:

The Tidewater Petition.

"The Tidewater Power Company respectfully petitions your honorable body:

"First: To grant it the franchise, right and privilege to build and construct a single track with the present track of the said Tidewater Power Company on Fourth street, between Taylor and Howard streets, continuing thence northwardly on Fourth street to Hilton street.

Electric Busses.

"Second: To grant it a license to operate a line of electric busses for the purpose of carrying passengers over the following streets of the city of Wilmington:

"Beginning at the corner of Front and Market streets, going eastwardly on said Market street to Third street, thence southwardly on Third street to Castle street, thence eastwardly on Castle street to Fifth street; thence northwardly on Fifth street to Market street; thence eastwardly on Market street to Ninth street, returning on Fifth street to Red Cross street; thence westwardly on Red Cross street to Third street, thence southwardly on Third street to Chesnut street; thence westwardly on Chesnut street to Front street; thence southwardly on Front street to the beginning.

More Cross Town Lines.

"Third: To grant it the franchise, right and privilege to build and construct a single track line of street railroad connecting with the present line of track at the corner of Fourth and Red Cross streets and running thence southwardly on Fourth street to Castle street.

"Fourth: To grant it the franchise, right and privilege to build and construct a single track line of railroad connecting with the present tracks of the said Tidewater Power Company on Tenth street at or near Orange street; and running thence southwardly along Tenth street to Greenfield street.

"Fifth: To grant it the franchise, right and privilege to build and construct a single track line of street railroad connecting with the tracks of the said Tidewater Power Company, on Sixth at or near Orange street and running thence northwardly on Sixth street to a point at or near Sixth street bridge, across the tracks of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company.

"Sixth: To grant it the franchise, right and privilege to build and construct a single track line of street railroad connecting with the present track of the said Tidewater Power Company on Castle street at the corner of Sixth and Castle street; running thence on Sixth street to the city limits at Greenfield street; thence eastwardly on Greenfield street to the city limits at Seventeenth street."

Mr. R. A. Parsley was present and urged Council to grant the Tidewater's application for a franchise for a line through Hilton. One or two members of Council suggested that this be done and let action on the other streets go over, but Mr. Skelding asked that all be acted upon at the same time, if possible, so that his company would know how much new material it had to purchase.

It was finally decided to refer all three applications to the City Attorney for his opinion upon the legal phases involved, and to defer action on them until it is received.

Other Matters Yesterday.

A communication from the board of health asking Council to take some action to prevent an epidemic of hydrophobia among the dogs of the city was not acted upon, it being the opinion of members of Council that the ordinance giving the mayor the power to require the muzzlings of all dogs when he deemed it necessary fully covered the situation. Mayor Moore said that it was only a question with him if such a course was necessary. Brooke G. Empie, Esq., who was present did not think so. He declared the communication from the Health Department was silly, and said that he doubted if a physician in Wilmington had ever seen a case of hydrophobia.

No action was taken on a petition from the Southern Sign Shops asking that a tax of $100 a year be imposed on sign painting establishments.

A number of real estate men were present to ask that the recent sanitary ordinance, imposing a license tax on surface closets and making the property owner responsible, be changed so as to hold the occupants responsible. Action on their request was deferred.

The contract for the necessary fixtures in two retiring rooms to be installed in the Academy of Music was awarded to Mr. H. E. Longley at $235, his being the lowest bid.

Report was made by the City Engineer that it would cost about $2,000 to build a culvert over Macomber's ditch at 14th and Red Cross streets. No action was taken.

Councilman Jones reported that he had investigated the complaints relative to newsboys selling papers at the union station, and thought that the city had ample ordinances to cover the matter. Coast Line officials had told him, he said, that they had no complaint to make of the boys selling papers on the sidewalks, but had asked the officers on duty to keep the boys from obstructing traffic and making themselves a nuisance.

Respected Colored Citizen Dead.

Joseph Ricks, a respected colored citizen for about 30 years employed at the United States Marine Hosital, died of heart disease at his home on Ann street between Ninth and Tenth early yesterday morning. He was a faithful member of Christ's Congregational church and for a number of years was an official of the church. The funeral will be conducted from this church at 3 o'clock this afternoon. He is survived by his wife and one daughter and a brother, who lives in Norfolk, Va.

IMPORTANT DEAL IN SUBURBAN REAL ESTATE

Greensboro Companies Buy Tract From Wright Estate

Transaction Made Through Agency of James & James, Inc.—Consideration Said to Be Between $30,000 and $40,000.

Through the agency of James & James, Inc., one of the largest suburban real estate transactions of some time was consummated yesterday afternoon when the Southern Life & Trust Company and the North Carolina Trust Company, two large allied insurance corporations of Greensboro, purchased from W. A. Wright estate, a valuable tract of something over 100 acres, lying in Harnett township, on the north side of the Wrightsville turnpike road between Delgado Mills and Highwood Park, for a consideration understood to be between $30,000 and $40,000.

The property adjoins the Currie tract on the Market street road in East Wilmington, purchased by the two Greensboro companies some months ago, and with yesterday's purchase the two corporations now own 170 acres extending all the way from the Wrightsville turnpike road to the Market street road in East Wilmington.

The policy of the two companies is to invest their money in the territory from which they draw their business, and while no definite announcement has been made as to their plans for the utilization of the two large tracts purchased by them in this county, it is presumed that eventually they will develop the land into a high-class suburban residential community. This has been inferred from the statement made by officials of the two companies, when they were in the city on the occasion of their purchase of the Currie tract. The officers of two companies, when they visited Wilmington, made a thorough investigation of the city and its prospects, and their purchase then and the additional purchase yesterday speaks eloquently of the high opinion they have of Wilmington's future.

In the event the holdings of the company in the East Wilmington section are developed, it is not unlikely that a modern improved highway will be built through the tract from the Market street road in East Wilmington to the Wrightsville turnpike at a point somewhere near Delgado, thus cutting down the distance from the city to the beach considerably and opening up new territory for the future growth of the city.

James & James, Inc., are the local agents of the two Greensboro companies, and Mr. J. Haughton James engineered the deal which was closed yesterday. The company has engineered a number of important realty transactions lately, but none of more importance than this one.

PLANS OF NEW POWER COMPANY ANNOUNCED

Officers and Directors of Electric Road Corporation

Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company Plans Road to Seaside Resort—Mr. C. C. Chadbourn President

Following the filing with City Council of application for franchise to build and operate car lines over certain of the city streets, official announcement was made yesterday at noon of the organization of the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, which took place in the office of Herbert McClammy, Esq., in the Garrell building, late Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. C. C. Chadbourn, a well known local capitalist and business man heads the new corporation as president, and the other officers are as follows:

Vice president, A. E. Leckie, Esq., Washington, D. C.

Secretary & Treasurer, Jos. J. Loughlin.

General Counsel, A. E. Leckie, Washington, and Chas. Hall Davis, Petersburg, Va.

General Attorney, Herbert McClammy, Esq.

Directors: C. C. Chadbourn, A. E. Leckie, J. J. Loughlin, Martin Newman, L. W. Davis and Adolp G. Ahrens.

The charter for the company was granted in March, 1913, and the local people interested have been working upon the proposition ever since. Messrs. Davis and Leckie have been in the city a number o ftimes within the last few months, and Mr. J. F. Heyward, one of the best known practical electric road engineers in the whole country, has been here for several months, at work on the proposition. Surveys have been made, options on the right of way secured, and, it was stated yesterday by President Chadbourn, the money for building the road secured.

Everything is in readiness, Mr. Chadbourn said, to begin work as soon as the franchises for entrance into the city are granted. The company proposes to have the line to Wilmington and Carolina beaches completed and in operation before the opening of the next Summer season.

While the company proposes to furnish electric current for power, lighting and all heating purposes, in addition to operating a car line to the two summer resorts, and also a trolley service over portions of the city, Mr. Chadbourn stated that it was not its purpose to fight or antagonize any person, firm or corporation, but rather to do all in its power to build up Wilmington and the surrounding section.

While the primary purpose of the road to Wilmington and Carolina beaches is for the development of big summer resorts there, Mr. Chadbourn pointed out that it is also planned to develop the trucking and fishing interests in that section of the county to be traversed by the road, which on account of lack of transportation facilities have been neglected heretofore.

It has been mentioned on the streets recently in connection with the rumors about the new resort and the road to be built to the beaches, that the company would also build several large tourist hotels, but when asked about this phase of the matter yesterday the officers stated that they were not yet in position to make their plans public. However, they declared that nothing would be spared to make Wilmington Beach and Carolina Beach high class, all the year round resorts, and that every indication points to a most successfull culmination of their plans.

STATE TRAP SHOOT CLOSES

Barrett is High Man for Amateurs and Daniels for Professionals—Scores Yesterday.

The closing events of the North Carolina Trap Shoot at Wrightsville Beach took place yesterday, those consisting of 13 events of 20 birds each. The events were open to all and Mr. J. M. Barrett was high over all, breaking 247 out of a possible 260. Mr. J. M. Daniels was high man for the professionals, breaking 246. L. Clayton Grant, Esq., of this city, was second high man for the amateurs with a score of 240. Messrs. Huff and Storr tied for second place for the professionals with a score of 242 each.

Mr. Barrett, who is from Augusta, Ga., was high man over all for both days and was awarded the trophy, donated by Mr. Terry, of the Dupont Powder Co. A number of cash prizes were awarded the winners in the different events.

The shoot took place on the Northern Extension, north of the Oceanic Hotel. The conditions yesterday were ideal and the gun sportsmen beginning at 9 A. M. spent practically the entire day at the traps. The Tidewater Power Company kept a car running regularly to the grounds and a number of visitors witnessed the shooting.

The "gunmen" had their headquarters at the Oceanic Hotel and Manager Charles E. Hooper and his efficient corps of assistants left nothing undone to make their stay pleasant and enjoyable. Something was said yesterday about having the next annual State shoot at Charlotte, but the majority of the "gunmen" were in favor of coming back to the beach next year.

There were 35 experts who took part in the events yesterday. The scores made were better than on the day before considering the larger number of events.

Following are the scores made by each one, out of a possible 260:

Wrightsville Beach

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Somers, of Salisbury, are spending some time at the beach. Mr. Somers is manager of the Yadkin Hotel at Salisbury

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Miss Miriam Parker arrived home yesterday at noon after spending 10 days at Wrightsville Beach with friends."

Mr. and Mrs. A. Roscower and son, Herbert, of Goldsboro, arrived yesterday and are spending a few days at the Temple Cottage. Mr. Roscower is the editor and owner of the Goldsboro Headlight.

Among the arrivals at the Hanover Inn yesterday were Mrs. Ann Mc Geachy and Mrs. J. F. L. Armfield, Fayetteville; Fred H. Siebert, Columbus, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kinbrough, Gainesville, Ga.; J. L. Smith, Mullins, S. C.

Two fishing parties from the Oceanic Hotel went out in boats from Capt. Salter's fleet yesterday and had splendid luck in capturing members of the finny tribe. One party was in charge of Mr. "Bill" Bailey, of Los Angeles, Cal., and the other of Mr. Marshall Sanders, of South Carolina.

Included in the arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Fountain, Charlotte; C. E. Rose, Atlanta; R. H. Sykes, Durham; S. J. McDaniel, Charlotte; H. O. Graddy, Atlanta; J. G. Chafee, Aiken, S. C.; William Rueger, Jos. H. Crenshaw, S. G. Christian and W. B. J. German, Richmond, Va.

A unique feature of the dancing at Lumina last evening was the throwing of serpentine rolls of confetti from the port holes in the balcony upon those taking part in the dance immediately following the first exhibition dance by Miss Chandler and Mr. West. The couples were literally covered with the tiny streamers of many colors making a pretty spectacle.

Another exhibition of the Barcarolle waltz was given at Lumina last evening by Miss Chandler and Mr. West. This is a modern adaptation of the classic dance and was rendered most gracefully by both dancers. The use of the spot light, recently installed, with its varied colors, added much to the attractiveness of the dance. There were the usual large number of spectators and they showed their appreciation by prolonged applause. In response to the encore the artists gave the Pavlowa Gavotte, which was also well rendered.

Tonight's moving picture bill at Lumina is one that can not be missed. Featuring "The Mystery of the Dover Express," a railroad story by Edison, the show promises to be one of great interest and as usual great crowds will watch the pictures on the screen over the mystic waves. The second picture is a howling Vitagraph comedy, "The Education of Aunt Georgianna" with a laugh in every inch of reel. "Father's Day" a Selig drama closes the bill.

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were Mrs. W. T. McCoy, Charlotte; Blake D. Applewhite and Miss Louise Applewhite, Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Joyner and Misses Marie and Ruth Jones, Sumter, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Huhn, Burgaw; W. H. T. Nelms, Atlanta; A. I. Henderson and W. A. Watson, Charlotte; J. C. McCaskin, Jr., Bennettsville, S. C.; Miss Marguerite Williams, Macon, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wells and Misses Isabel Elizabeth and Margaret Wells, Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, Macon, Ga.; Leon C. Steele, Norfolk; J. N. McCausland and E. W. Berryhill, Charlotte; Wortham Wyatt, Lilesville; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Somers, Salisbury.

The first pyrotechnic display at Lumina for this season will take place this evening beginning promptly at 9:15. A number of exhibitions were given last year and the public is assured that the one to be given tonight will be fully up to the standard already established. It will be in charge of Mr. Hudson, who has given the previous exhibitions. The display will be aerial entirely and will be given next to the sound, back of Lumina, and can be seen from the verandas. There will be bombs of all sorts and descriptions, many of these being of complicated design. Parachutes, stars, crosses and flags will be flashed out in startling designs upon the darkness, making a striking display that will be well worth seeing. The final number will be a "Grand Cannonade," consisting of 25 large cannon salutes. This will take place on the ground and is intended to produce an effect resembling a general engagement.

DAY'S DOINGS IN CAMP WILSON

Detail for Day—New Arrivals Welcomed—Interesting Mock Trial With Suffragette Jury.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Camp Wilson, Carolina Beach, N. C., July 22.—General Orders No. 6 today names Simon Branch, officer of the day; detail: H. Register, I. Palmgren, J. J. Fowler, F. Litgen; waiters Cumber, D. Ellis, Rochelle, Earl Smith.

The camp misses very much the presence of Ralph Sholar, George Fowler and J. A. McCartney, who had to leave camp for work yesterday. On the other hand we have been glad to welcome Ivar Palmgren, John Fergus, and Norwood Futrelle on yesterday's train; also C. W. Bornemann, A. J. Burrus and H. G. Carney, who arrived today to spend the remainder of the week with us. It was indeed a pleasure to have Dr. Jas. M. Hall with us for supper last night. His presence was especially timely in that he administered doses for morning headaches, said headaches resulting from too much melon at the party yesterday afternoon. The colonel gave a watermelon party to the boys and their friends on the beach in front of camp, all hands being in bath suits. After dispatching the hearts of the melons to the inner bodies, the merry-makers applied the rinds to each other's faces, then enjoyed the surf party for an hour. We thank Dr. Hall also for leaving a supply of Skeeter-Go.

Account of the Mock Trial.

By far the most interesting affair of the encampment to date was the mock trial held at the camp court this morning.

The whole trial was mock in the purest sense. Mr. W. T. Walker kindly consented to act as the accused person in the proceedings, and made a capital actor. The other dramatis personae were:

Judge—Colonel Walker Taylor.
Solicitor—B. F. King, Jr.
Prosecutor—J. U. King.
Chief Counsel for the Defense—H. F. Brittain, Jr.
Assistant Counsel for the Defense—H. K. King.
Sheriff—George Bornemann.

Jurists—Mrs. S. F. Garrison, forelady; Mrs. B. F. Brittain, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Davis, Misses Stella Cox, Katherine King, Jesse Holmes, Mae Landen, Annie Griffith, Hattie King, Edelweiss King, Miss Roberts and Mrs. J. Fred Russ.

It was desired to give the suffrage question play, and the jury was drawn entirely from the female population in the vicinity. Several names were placed in a hat and Master Harold Russ drew 12 slips. The ladies whose names were called from these slips were called to the jury bench to sit on the case.

The defendant was accused of feloniously taking, removing, and appropriating to himself two watermelons, three cantaloupes, two dozen eggs and one ham, the said articles of food having been missed from the commissary department. Court convened at 9 o'clock with Judge Taylor presiding. The judge called the court to order and stated the nature of the indictment. Mr. J. A. Price, commissary sergeant, preferred the charges. The State's lawyers, Solicitor B. F. King, Jr., and Prosecutor J. U. King, called their first witness, Kelly W. Jewell. Being duly sworn, Mr. Jewell was charged by the judge to tell all that he didn't know about the theft in question making his statements as far from the truth as possible, if he knew what the truth was. Mr. Jewell gave his testimony in strict accordance.

The defendant's chief counsel, Hon. B. F. Brittain, Jr., cross questioned Jewell, but failed to get any valuable information whatever.

The defense then introduced Mr. Chas. C. Davis as an alibi for Mr. Walker. The defense produced Mr. Albert Beach, who testified. Mr. Brittain called on Mr. John Fergus as a character witness. Mr. Fergus stated that he had always known Mr. Walker, that his reputation was unsullied, his character beyond reproach.

Mr. Lony Davis, the last witness for the defense, testified that Walker's character was absolutely good, and gave a forceful "spiel" in behalf of the defendant.

The lawyers' speeches were next delivered.

The judge then charged the jury to repair to the jury room and after weighing the evidence given—with no regard for the legal brilliance exhibited or for the fashion sheets strewn in the jury tent—to reach a conclusion if possible and report to the court. The jury surely delivered in great style. They could not agree and asked three times for a recess. The judge thrice sent them back to argue further in hopes of reaching a conclusion, and finally had to break the session for refreshments, furnishing the jury with bountiful slices of watermelon. The forelady announced that the nearest verdict they could give was a vote of 11 to 1 for guilty.

The judge announced a mistrial, placed the defendant under a $500 bond, to await the next term of court.

To Discard Freckles, Tan, Pimples, Wrinkles

The use of creams on the face sometimes causes hair to grow. You can avoid the risk of acquiring superfluous hair by avoiding cosmetics and using mercolized wax instead. There is nothing better for any condition of the skin, as the wax actually absorbs the offensive cuticle. The latter is naturally replaced by a clear, smooth, healthy complexion, full of life and expression. It's the sensible way to discard a freckled, tanned, over-red, blotchy or pimpled skin. Get an ounce of mercolized wax at any druggist's and apply nightly like cold cream, erasing in the morning with soap and water. It takes a week or so to complete the transformation.

The ideal wrinkle eardicator is made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings almost instantaneous results.

The Emergency Value of Big Organization

WHEN a real catastrophe happens to a telephone system; when a fire destroys an exchange and the terminal apparatus, or a storm lays low the pole lines, the value of a big organization is quickly shown.

When a conflagration swept the city of Chelsea, Mass., it burned the Bell telephone exchange and destroyed the telephone equipment.

The next day a temporary central station was established, amid the ruins, and the service restored.

With similar promptness telephone service was re-established in Baltimore, San Francisco and Bangor, and after the more recent disasters in the Middle West.

To meet great emergencies, complete switchboards and apparatus valued at over $100,000 are kept at Chicago and New York, crated and ready for shipment whenever the call for help comes from any part of the organization.

COTTON MARKET UNSETTLED

The Government's Forecast of Cloudy Weather in Southwest Caused Change in the Market.

New York, July 22.—The government forecast predicting cloudy weather in the Southwest and possibly showers in Northwest Texas unsettled the cotton market somewhat today, although on the whole new crops presented a steady appearance and at times sold up 6 to 7 points over the previous close. Trade was not large and outside of early buying for Liverpool account against sales in that market, showed no particular feature. The close was steady and 1 point higher to 3 lower.

Fluctuations were guided largely by the varying news from the Southwest. The highest levels were attained when detailed weather reports showed very high temperatures in Oklahoma. There were many bullish advices in regard to the conditions in Texas. Other reports claimed that the crop would stand dry weather until August 1st. Taking the crops as a whole, however, they indicated that in any event the Texas crop is likely to be very spotted.

Practically all reports from sections east of the river on the other hand were very favorable and clear weather with moderate temperatures was again predicted. Futures steady.

FAKED DEATH TO GET MONEY.

Youth at Norfolk, "Dead Broke," Sought Funds for "Funeral."

Norfolk, Va., July 22.—When J. B. Stanley, a wealthy contractor of Durham, N. C., received a telegram Friday announcing the death here of his nephew, Thomas Stanley, he made preparations for the funeral. He told his friends about Tom's death and they sent flowers. A number of them were waiting at the depot expecting the "corpse" to be brought in on a train Friday night.

Thomas Stanley and William Lemmon came to Norfolk. They became "broke" and Tom decided that the only way he could "touch" his uncle was to play dead. He sent a message to J. B. Stanley and signed the name of Jordan Mangum, a good friend of the family.

The message stated that Tom had been killed by a Norfolk policeman because he resented arrest.

The uncle sent the necessary money to pay for shipping Tom's body home, but he sent it by mail. When Jordan Magnum received the money, with instructions for shipping the body, he came near needing the services of a doctor. He was not in on the effort to "touch" the elder Stanley, and wrote the latter that, to the best of his knowledge, Tom was in good health, but was "broke."

MASS MEETING TODAY.

Citizens of Wilson Town and County Called Together.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., July 22.—A mass meeting of citizens of the town and county has been called for Thursday morning. Mr. C. A. Maull, of the industrial department of the Atlantic Coast Line, will deliver an address. The object of the meeting is to take steps toward bringing settlers to this section from the Northwest.

The funeral service of Mr. M. T. Gwaltney, of Tarboro, was held here at the residence of Mrs. Ben Amerson, on Jackson street. Mr. Gwaltney was taken suddenly ill during a visit to his daughter at Stantonsburg, and brought here for treatment. Death followed Monday. The service was conducted by Elder P. D. Gold, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ballou, of Tarboro. Mr. Gwaltney was 79 years old.

Baltimore, July 22.—That six of the steamer Monroe's life rafts were not launched, although it was convenient to get at them, and that Captain Edward E. Johnson, master, left the ship which others remanined aboard, was the testimony given today at the hearing of Captain Johnson before the local board of U. S. steamboat inspectors.

The testimony was given by Guy E. Horsley, first officer of the Monroe when that ship was sunk in collision with the liner Nantucket off the caps of Virginia January 30. Captain Johnson is charged with negligence incompetency and unskilfulness.

MARKET HELD FAIRLY FIRM

Despite the Injection of New and Unfavorable Elements Such as the Proposed New Haven Suit.

New York, July 22.—Despite the injection of such new and unfavorable elements as the proposed dissolution suit against the New Haven and the abandonment of the Rock Island reorganization plan, today's stock market held fairly firm in that class of securities whose present and future seem reasonably assured.

Some of these issues rose above the preceding day's best prices, but failed to hold any considerable part of their advantage. New Haven fell 2 points at the outset, but soon recovered a part of its loss. Other semi-active stocks of speculative value also made moderate improvement.

Virtually all the Rock Islands lost ground, the decline in the debenture 5s extending to 7 3-4 points, while the convertible 4s fell 3 3-8. Missouri Pacific stocks and bonds were weak, and Denver & Rio Grande 5s and Colorado Midland 4s recorded marked losses. The session closed with an irregular tone.

Investment bonds resisted the declining tendency elsewhere, but the list as a whole evinced an easier tone. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,796,000. United States government bonds were unchanged.

CHARLOTTE TIRED OF S. C. CHECK FLASHERS

Requisition is Issued for David J. Griffith

Corn Club Boys of West About to Surpass Those of East—Yancey Man Pardoned—Raleigh's Mortality Record.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 22.—Charged with repeatedly issuing worthless checks to Mecklenburg Hotel, Charlotte, David J. Griffith is to be brought back to that city from South Carolina for trial. The requisition to this end was issued today on the governor of South Carolina by Governor Craig.

Mr. C. W. Tillett, Jr., of Charlotte, for the prosecution, writes the governor that the Mecklenburg and other hotels of Charlotte suffer considerably from the issuance of worthless checks by unprincipled persons coming across the State line from South Carolina and that there is a general desire to make an example of this case against Griffith, who is alleged to be guilty of especially flagrant and repeated acts of the kind. The indictment recites four separate instances of the sort, all the checks, however, being for small amounts—$7.50, $2, $3 and $5. The requisition names V. P. Fesperman as the officer to go to South Carolina for the fugitive.

Eastern Club Boys Lookout.

Declaring that he was much impressed with conditions in the western counties, which he has recently traversed, and that some of the finest corn that he ever remembers to have seen was in the mountain valleys of these counties and, furthermore, that the boys' corn club forces in the eastern counties must soon look well to their laurels else the boys of those western counties will outstrip them, T. E. Brown, director of the boys' corn club work for this State, is just back from a Western Carolina trip. He says that some counties in which there are now not more than one or two boys enlisted in the club work this season have pledged twenty to thirty next year.

Yancey Man Pardoned.

A pardon is granted by Governor Craig to T. J. Honeycutt, convicted in Yancey county in March, 1914, for immoral conduct and sentenced to seven months on the roads, the pardon being for the reason that the prisoner has since married the girl in the case and county officers and many citizens ask for the pardon.

Raleigh's Mortality Record.

The Raleigh health bulletin for June shows 70 deaths in this city during the month, including 23 who died in the various hospitals and institutions here and the one electrocution out at the State prison. Heretofore all these deaths, including the 23 in the State institutions, would have been charged up for Raleigh's mortality rate, but now this is not the case, the number actually charged against Raleigh being 57. During the month nine persons over 70 years old died here. The city had only two cases of typhoid fever.

Dr. Covington to Fight Hookworm.

The hookworm eradication division of the State Department of Health has added Dr. W. P. Covington, of Wadesboro, to the staff of physicians carrying on the campaign for the eradication of hookworm. He has been with the department in other capacities for the past four years. He has begun his work for the hookworm campaign at Hallsboro, Columbus county. There are four other counties in the State where this eradication work is being done, in Sampson, Robeson, New Hanover and Nash counties.

Cotton Loss After Ginning.

A special feature of the second day's conference of the farmers' institute workers here for three days was an address by Prof. Thomas Nelson, of the A. & M. College, on the ginning and general care of cotton. He pleaded for better care of cotton in protecting it from the weather, telling of a single instance where $80 was lost by leaving the cotton exposed to the weather after it was ginned. There was another instance mentioned in which $2,000 was lost on a 300-bale lot. He treated the grading of the cotton and said that much is lost through the teeth of the gin cutting the cotton in the process of the ginning.

RESUME WORK ON TRUST MEASURE

ed by Senator Cummins, would put upon the railroads, full liability for damages despite stipulations or agreements in bills of lading.

Agree on Definite Programme.

Senate Democrats in caucus tonight agreed upon a definite legislative programme under which they expect to put through the anti-trust programme and appropriation bills, and bring about adjournment of Congress. Nearly every majority Senator now in Washington attended and "hurry" was the keynote of the meeting.

It was decided that the pending inter-State trade commission bill should be continued as the unfinished business and kept constantly before the Senate until disposed of.

When the trade commission bill has been passed, the Clayton anti-trust bill, the railroad securities measure and the rivers and harbors appropriation bill will be taken up in the order named for uninterrupted consideration. Appropriation bills alone will take precedence over anti-trust legislation.

The new programme was put into effect Friday, with daily sessions from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M. To avoid parliamentary difficulties in the way of the legislative schedule, the Senate will recess each day until the next instead of adjourning.

Senator Lewis, of Illinois, was persuaded to abandon his intention of resigning as "whip" and was directed to keep a quorum in the chamber at all times.

There was some discussion at the caucus about combining the three anti-trust bills, but the question was left open for future action.

PEACE IN MEXICO IN FAR FROM ASSURED

Chamber of Deputies will be that of members of the Madero Congress, dissolved by Huerta last October.

A majority of the Madero congressmen are here awaiting the sanction of Gen. Carranza to re-assemble and elect a provisional president to succeed Carbajal.

Quiet in Capital.

In spite of fighting during the last few days between the Federals, supported by the capital police and the rebel bands which have been attacking the small towns, just south of Mexico City, the capital apparently is undisturbed. Theatres and cafes are thronged and the streets crowded. Banks are open and building operations are going on uninterruptedly.

Part of the famous 29th regiment, which escorted Huerta to the coast, returned to the capital today, setting at rest many wild rumors as to what course that organization would follow. It was announced officially that the remainder of the regiment would arrive late today.

Garcia Naranjo, ex-minister of public instruction and the last member of the Huerta cabinet to leave, today started for Vera Cruz bound for New York.

In Communication With Capital.

Victoria, Tamaulipas, July 22.—Gen. Carranza exchanged messages today with Robles Dominguez, confidential agent of the Constitutionalists in Mexico City. Dominguez asked for instructions. Carranza's reply was not made public here.

Dominguez, who has been in Mexico City since the beginning of the revolution, also acted as intermediary during the Madero revolution and it was to him that Gen. Diaz turned over the government and the city during the time between his departure for Europe and the entry of Francisco Madero. Gen. Carranza's reply to Dominguez was not made public here.

Constitutionalist officers here regard it as certain that the preliminary arrangements soon are to be made and that the first chief will enter the capital with little delay.

Constitutionalist officers assert that Gen. Carranza has received information from diplomatic sources that Carbajal formally had expressed his inclination to turn over unconditionally not only the reins of government and the city, but also the Federal army. The news of the inauguration of communication with the capital was communicated at once to John R. Silliman, President Wilson's personal representative here.

The impression prevailed here today that the fighting and bloodshed is at an end.

It was understood that every precaution would be taken by Gen. Carranza as well as by the authorities in Mexico City, to prevent disorder or destruction of life or property in the capital until his arrival. News was received here that troops under command of Gen. Panfilo Nateras yesterday occupied Aguas Calientes.

Gen. Gonzales reported that a heavy rear guard engagement was fought with the retreating Federals three days ago near San Luis Potosi. Gonzales has ordered his entire division to advance to Queretaro, which is regarded as the real gateway to Mexico City.

A short business session followed, in which the credentials committee reported with no contests.

This afternoon, in addition to the report of President Regan, the convention heard reports from its secretary, from the Juvenile committee which reported a membership of 8,400; from the military branch of the order, which recommended raising funds for the cause in Ireland and declared nine counties in Ireland were drilling for conflict.

Telegrams were sent to the Apostolic delegates at Washington and in Canada and to the Pope.

Every state in the Union is represented at the convention, and delegates are present from the Canadian northwest.

ROOSEVELT ENDORSES HINMAN FOR GOVERNOR

Calls on People of New York to Support Binghampton Man.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 22.—The candidacy of ex-Senator Harvey D. Hinman, of Binghampton, for the gubernatorial nomination at the Republican primaries was endorsed tonight by Theodore Roosevelt. In a formal statement Col. Roosevelt calls upon "all good citizens, no matter what their party affiliations" to join in support of a State ticket—the success of which would mean the overthrow of Mr. Barnes and Mr. Murphy."

In his statement he said:

"In this campaign I have a duty to the Progressives of the nation and a duty also to the State of New York. In national politics, insofar as I am able, I shall endeavor to strive for the success of the principles embodied in the Progressive national platform.

"But in this State the prime need is for a good citizens' movement, a union movement, to save the State from the bi-partisan control of Messrs. Barnes and Murphy. In New York State we see at its worst the development of a system of bi-partisan boss rule. The outcome of this system is necessarily that invisible government which the Progressive party was a large part founded to oppose."

PHI BETA THETA TODAY.

Meeting of Scholastic Fraternity at Wrightsville Beach Begins.

Members of the Phi Delta Theta, a college fraternity, began arriving yesterday to attend the annual session which will be held at the Seashore Hotel beginning today. The meeting will continue through the remainder of the week. Owing to a misunderstanding among some of the members it was the general impression that the sessions would begin today, although the announcement in the public press stated that they would begin yesterday.

A business meeting will be held at the Seashore Hotel this morning and this afternoon will be given over to social features. A number of the members in attendance are accompanied by their sisters and wives and other lady friends.

CHARGED WITH LOTTERY.

Furniture Salesmen Will Take Case to Higher Court for Decision.

Charged with violation of the laws against gambling by conducting an alleged lottery, L. Van Collum, Joseph Leach and Misses Roscover and Hanson, employed by the Mutual Supply Co., of Richmond, Va., were before the Recorder yesterday and were each found guilty. The case against Collum was appealed to Superior Court and his bond fixed at $200, which he gave. Judgment in the others was suspended by Deputy Recorder Harriss upon payment of the costs, pending the decision of the higher court.

The defendants were selling furniture on the installment plan. The contract stipulates that those buying furniture shall pay 25 cents a week until $17.50 has been paid. It is stipulated further in the contract that the company will each week distribute a number of sets of furniture to different customers for advertising purposes. Those customers getting furniture thus distributed are relieved from making further payments. It is this feature that is alleged to be a lottery. Herbert McClammy, Esq., represented the defendants and Solicitor Peschau represented the State.

J. W. McKinney, a white huckster, was sent to the county roads for three months for the larceny of a watch from Tom Pyron, a restaurant keeper at Tenth and Castle streets.

Lamb Brown, Sandy Allen and Kirk Highsmith, all colored, will be tried this morning on charges of violating the prohibition law. Cases against Mack Taylor and Essie Williams, charging them with violating the dog tax ordinance, were nol prossed, they having secured badges as required by law.

DISAPPROVES OF RECALL OF JUDGES—T. W. SHELDON.

Chairman of American Bar Association Addresses Convention.

Chicago, July 22.—Disapproval of the recall of judges and judicial decisions and a "plea for less interference with the judiciary by the executive branch of the government were voiced today by Thomas W. Shelton, of Norfolk, Va., chairman of the American Bar Association committee and uniform judicial procedure. He spoke before the convention of the Commercial Law League of America.

Mr. Shelton referred to the attitude of James II, of England, who declared: "I am determined to have 12 lawyers for judges who will be all of my mind."

"That," said Mr. Shelton, "is an example of the recall of judges and judicial decisions which it is well to remember."

The speaker inveighed against what is declared was the practice of nearly every State legislature to dictate by rigid statutes just how the court should perform its duties. He compared this to giving stringent rules for every move to a locomotive engineer and then criticising him because his engine ran off the track in following the rules laid down."
